General Accounting Office, 2001 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)54515504 Subject: Export controls -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Further, we recommend that the Secretary of State direct the Office of Defense Trade Controls to establish a mechanism to track license applications through each phase of the process to ensure timeliness goals are met and applications are not lost or delayed. To prevent imbedding an inefficient process into the State Departments planned electronic business processing system, we recommend that the Secretary of State ensure the steps outlined above are taken before proceeding with a new electronic processing system. The State Department should coordinate its efforts with the Defense Department because the Defense Department is also developing a new electronic system and receives the majority of license application referrals. In commenting on our draft report, the State Department said that certain Agency Comments of our findings appear to be premised on conjecture and a failure to comprehend how foreign policy provides the overall context for munitions and Our Evaluation export controls and that other findings appear to be...

Reviews

An exceptional pdf and the typeface utilized was fascinating to read through. It can be written in straightforward words and phrases instead of confusing. I am just quickly could possibly get a delight of looking at a written ebook.

-- Prof. Arlie Bogan

It is in a single of the best book. This is for those who state there had not been a well worth reading through. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
