Gracious Goodness: Living Each Day in the Gifts of the Spirit

By Melannie Svoboda

Loyola University Press, U.S., United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. A wholly different way of living in the Holy Spirit's gifts Melannie Svoboda, SND, takes seriously the traditional gifts of the Holy Spirit--but she believes that the Spirit's gifts are far broader and more common than we realize. In Gracious Goodness, Svoboda lists fifty-two gifts of the Spirit, many of which will surprise readers: childlikeness, common sense, pleasure, relaxation, zeal . . . even anger, failure, and guilt are included as gifts! Each two-page meditation, based on Scripture and real-life experiences, begins with a relevant quote and ends with application questions, followed by a short prayer. Ultimately, Gracious Goodness encourages Christians to fully trust the unending goodness of God as they learn to recognize and embrace the abundance and diversity of the Holy Spirit's gifts in every person's life. The Latin phrase nota bene (n.b.) means note well! Sr. Melannie Svoboda not only knows that phrase--she lives it. In Gracious Goodness we have fifty-two n.b.'s that will enrich our spiritual treasure troves. -- Bishop Robert Morneau, Auxiliary Bishop of Green Bay In Gracious Goodness, Sr. Melannie...
