Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A Society becomes sick when its members undertake activities harmful to many. There are several professions engaged in providing various services. In course of time each profession tolerates at least some members who adopt practices devoid of ethics and means foul to achieve their goals which often centre on greed to amass wealth. Some such members become eligible to be called professional cheats. These persons have a philosophy of cheating in built into their operations. In this book some professions where the trend has manifested are taken for illustration. These include medical, finance, engineering, business, labor, legal and public administration. Men want to satisfy their wants. Wants and desires multiply They are the indiscriminate offspring of the mind .When they are satisfied at the lowest level more and more desires and wants manifest and demand fulfillment. Later this becomes greed. The nature of greed and its growth are like pouring ghee into fire. The intensity becomes great. When resources are not available to satisfy greed, crooked methods are sought. Greed commands resources without priority considerations. Resources are cornered by people who perpetuate and promote greed. Though we may call them entrepreneurs, many turn out to be thieves of society. When the tendency to satisfy greed becomes predominant in society such a society adopts all means fair and foul to muster resources. This leads to extensive borrowing to supplement own resources. Excessive borrowing creates a situation that repayment of loans becomes difficult and default occurs. This sets in motion a chain reaction and the economy collapses causing fall in employment and rise in economic misery. The lone culprit is uThe bane of society is...
