Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Personality of Thoreau This will now first be given to the public. It is the intention of the publisher to make this volume acceptable alike to the general reader and the lover of choice books. A full-page etching by Sidney L. Smith and facsimiles of Thoreau s manuscript will appear as illustrations. The book is to be printed at the Merrymount Press, and great care will be given to the selection of type and its arrangement. The paper is made specially for the book in France, and is the same as that used by the Imprimerie Nationale, Paris, in the production of some of the books issued by the French Government for the recent Exposition; the type (a special fresh casting for this volume) is an imported Scotch modern-face, in use about 1840 - Thoreau s period. The aim is to produce a volume which shall be artistically beautiful, without undue display or the exploiting of novel features. A specimen page is shown on the following sheet.
