She tried a block in one place after another until she found a place it would fit. It was probably by chance that she put construction puzzle A together the first time, for in the third and fourth trials beginning with a different block she had trouble. After the fourth trial she had learned it so that she could begin with any block. She finished the cancellation test to her own satisfaction in 2 minutes and 15 seconds, which should have been ample time to complete it, but she had left nearly half of the 7 s uncrossed. In the motor coordination test, the first time she was slow but accurate, the second time she hit at random. Summary.--A feeble-minded child who has already been tried in a good home. Form perception and muscular control poor, She is able to...
